Press Release:

Event Date: November 5 & 6, 2007

Event: 2007 Hot Topics in EMS Conference

Event Location: Kalahari Resort, Wisconsin Dells

Event Contact: Jerry Miller

On November 5th and 6th, 2007, well over 100 EMS Professionals are expected to converge at the Kalahari Resort in Wisconsin Dells for the 2007 Hot Topics In EMS Conference. LifeQuest Services, the Midwest's largest EMS & Fire billing, collection, and data management service is hosting the annual event.

The 2007 conference, will educate EMS professionals in correctly interpreting new laws and regulations that will impact their services. Legal and reimbursement issues will also be discussed and attendees will have the chance to speak to EMS & Legal experts who will bring them up to date on a wide variety of topics.

Attorney Doug Wolfberg of Page, Wolfberg and Wirth, LLC, the nation's leading EMS industry law firm, will speak on a number of subjects and present a mini mock trial. The yearly "mock trial feature" has been highly appreciated by previous attendees, giving them a chance to see how EMS issues can be called into play in the courtroom and just what to expect in such a setting.

Leaders™ an outstanding new EMS & Fire web-based reporting system, as well as other products representing the latest in technologies for EMS and Fire Services, will be presented. Ways to streamline services while reducing operating costs is also part of the agenda.

All those involved in EMS Services will not want to miss this event!

To register for this event call LifeQuest at 1-888-777-4911 and ask for Nikki or Mary.
