Illinois Updates – January 8, 2021

General Assembly Convenes Lame-Duck Session

Lawmakers returned to Springfield today with Democrats hoping to use the final days of the 101st General Assembly to pass the Legislative Black Caucus' social justice agenda. Built on four pillars representing education, criminal justice, economic and health care reforms, the agenda was developed in response to the death of George Floyd and other events resulting in social unrest in 2020. Speaker Madigan, who has been endorsed by the House Black Caucus in his reelection efforts has pledged to help move the ambitious package of reforms through his chamber this week.

The House may also take up legislation to allow for some form of remote or virtual meetings of standing committees. Legislation proposed during the abbreviated May session to allow for virtual meetings fell short in the House due to opposition from lawmakers representing Springfield, the capital. For the lame-duck session, the House is again meeting at Springfield's Bank of Springfield Convention Center, and the Senate is meeting in the Senate chambers. As was the procedure in May, access to the proceedings is extremely limited for staff, lobbyists and the press.

Early Exits

A number of legislators announced their resignations over the past two weeks. In the Senate, Bill Brady (R-Bloomington) announced he would be stepping down. Brady had served in the General Assembly for 27 years, and recently lost his position as Senate Republican Leader to Sen. Dan McConchie. Also submitting an early resignation was Sen. Chuck Weaver (R-Peoria), who did not run for reelection. Weaver is succeeded by Win Stoller (R-Germantown Hills). On the Democrat side of the aisle, Sen. Andy Manar (D-Bunker Hill) announced his resignation to take a position as a Senior Advisor to Governor JB Pritzker.

In the House, Rep. Margo McDermed (R-Frankfort), who did not run for reelection stepped down early allowing her successor Tim Ozinga (R-Mokena) to be sworn in to serve the 37th District. Rep. Allen Skillicorn (R-Crystal Lake), who lost his election to Democrat Suzanne Ness (D-Crystal Lake) resigned before the end of his term. Rep. Jonathan “Yoni” Pizer (D-Chicago) who lost his primary to Margaret Croke stepped down allowing Croke to take office during the current 101st General Assembly.

McConchie Names Leadership Team

Senate Republican Leader Dan McConchie announced his leadership team recently. McConchie was selected by the Senate Republicans to lead their caucus following the November election. Serving in leadership for the Republicans will be:

Senator Sue Rezin (Morris): Deputy Republican Leader
Senator Jason Barickman (Bloomington): Republican Caucus Chair
Senator Donald DeWitte (St. Charles): Assistant Republican Leader
Senator Steve McClure (Springfield): Assistant Republican Leader
Senator Jason Plummer (Edwardsville): Assistant Republican Leader
Senator Chapin Rose (Mahomet): Assistant Republican Leader
Senator Dave Syverson (Rockford): Republican Caucus Whip
Senator Jil Tracy (Quincy): Republican Caucus Whip

McConchie also announced that former Sen. Dale Righter (R-Mattoon), who chose not to run for reelection will serve as his Chief of Staff.

Willis, Williams Announce for Speaker

Following the announcement that the House Democrat Women’s Caucus would hold a forum to hear from candidates for Speaker, Rep. Kathleen Willis (D-Northlake) and Rep. Ann Williams (D-Chicago) threw their hats in the ring. The forum was held virtually on Wednesday, and no official endorsement was made by the caucus. The women’s forum followed similar meetings held by the House Democrat Black Caucus and the House Democrat Latinx Caucus, both which resulted in endorsements for Speaker Michael J. Madigan. Prior to Willis and Williams entering the race, the only other declared candidate other than Madigan was Rep. Stephanie Kifowit (D-Aurora).

Two other factions of House Democrats comprised of a group of moderate suburban members and downstate members have indicated they will follow suit with their own forums to hear from the four current candidates. Madigan faces the first leadership challenge of his long legislative career due to his role in the U.S. Attorney's bribery case against utility Commonwealth Edison. In July, ComEd entered into a deferred prosecution agreement with federal authorities to end an ongoing investigation of the company. The federal government's investigation centered on the utility's use of hiring, contracts and other practices intended to gain favor with the Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives in exchange for favorable consideration of legislation to benefit the company valued at $150 million.

Covid Updates

At a press conference Wednesday Governor JB Pritzker announced updated guidance regarding the state's Covid-19 vaccination plan. As the state grows closer to completing vaccination of group 1A, health care personnel and residents of long-term care facilities, Pritzker said that Illinois would differ from the ACIP guidance by lowering the eligibility age for group 1B, persons aged 75 years and non-health care frontline essential workers to persons aged 65 year. Pritzker said the decision was made based on data that shows the average age of death in Illinois for white Covid-19 victims as 81 years of age, compared to an average age of 72 for Black Illinoisans and age 68 for Hispanic Illinoisans.

At the same event, the Governor said that all regions of the state's Restore Illinois plan may be able to move out of Tier 3 mitigations as early as next week. The Illinois Department of Public Health today is reporting 9,277 new confirmed or probable cases of Covid-19. IDPH reports 126 additional deaths, and 3,777 hospitalizations of which 780 are in intensive care. The state's positivity rate is 8.5 percent.
