About the Cover: IAFPD is doing their part and urges its members to comply with the CDC guidelines for preventing the spread of COVID-19. In compliance with CDC guidelines, face masks should be worn when social distancing is not possible. The Association has also turned to Zoom and other online platforms to host meetings and conferences during this time when in-person gatherings are restricted. As the State of Illinois reopens we will once again safely gather in-person or receive visitors at our office. Please know we have taken extra precautions at our office by wearing masks and by sanitizing common areas daily.
